ABOUT VERGE

Verge's community includes artists and creative professionals, as well as educators, families, youth, and adults who seek to engage with the arts in a meaningful way. Every year, the Verge team works tirelessly to provide programming to bolster our creative community and support regional artists.

How do we do this? By offering a variety of programs designed to engage creative folks of all kinds—from emerging & career artists, to students from local schools, and of course, the public!

Here's How We Support Our Creative Community

VERGE REGIONAL RESIDENCY PROGRAM

The purpose of the VRRP is to give meaningful support to emerging and career artists from the Sacramento region, providing artists with free workspace as well as a financial stipend in order to help them invest in their practice more deeply.

CLASSES, WORKSHOPS, AND LABS

We offer hundreds of educational opportunities every year for experienced artists and novices alike to expand their creative skillsets. Join us weekly for Clay Lab & Figure Drawing, or view upcoming classes on our website!

SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS

Verge partners with the Twin Rivers School District, Growth Public Schools, and Sacramento State University in order to provide arts education and exhibition opportunities to students, allowing them to grow their practice and their portfolios.

EXHIBITIONS

In support of our mission to bring ground breaking contemporary art & ideas to the region, Verge produces five exhibitions each year, which spotlight diverse contemporary artists from around the globe.

PENCE GALLERY

The Pence Gallery is a cultural gem in our community, offering changing exhibits of art by local and regional artists.

WELCOME

Verge Center for the Arts is proud to present the 18th annual Sac Open Studios tour, highlighting the artwork and creative practice of over 260 artists from across the greater Sacramento region.

We offer this program as a means to connect local artists with art lovers, patrons, gallerists, and their neighbors and to bring arts engagement directly to the public, in their own communities.

It is our hope that these connections help everyone to flourish — and to that end, we are pursuing the public’s feedback in a quick survey that will help Verge continue to grow, enliven, and improve the Sac Open Studios program.

We humbly ask that attendees take a brief survey, which you can access via the QR code below. It doesn’t matter if you visited just 1 studio or 100 — we want to hear from you!

The Verge team would like to express our gratitude to the 30,000 supporters of our creative community that attend Sac Open Studios each year, as we know we couldn’t do what we do without YOU! We look forward to seeing you all this September, for another banner year!

Take the Survey:

ARTIST DEMOS

Sac Open Studios artists have planned a number of creative and engaging demos for tour-goers like you. Attend an artist demo to learn a new technique, make an artwork to take home, and have some artsy fun. With demos ranging from painting and printmaking to ceramics and quilting, there's something for every art lover to enjoy!

Weekend 1

Card-making With Watercolor, Watercolor Pencils and Ink

Adele Ohs 105A

Participants will watch a demo. Afterward they will have the opportunity to then make their own greeting cards using watercolors, watercolor pencils, and black ink pens. They will receive instructions for using these materials to create an original 5" x 7" greeting card. The instructor will provide materials to make a card to take home as well as a list of resources.

Hands-on Printmaking Make & Take Activity

Heather Hogan's Tenacious Goods 144A

Print your own fabric patch, sticker, or postcard with hand-carved relief blocks and quirky stamps.

Kids' Craft - Making a Spinner

Melanie Bown 144D

Learn to make a spinner that creates an optical illusion using simple materials you can find around the house. Make your own, have fun, and teach your friends.

Asian Papermaking

Steph Rue 145

Steph will discuss and demonstrate her methods for papermaking based on techniques that were traditionally used in Korea, Japan, and other parts of Asia. Participants will learn about tools, materials, and methods of sheet-forming, and will have the opportunity to form a sheet or two at the vat. Steph will also have a kid-friendly setup with a deckle box and colored pulp. Participants will have the option to pick up their sheet once it is dried at a later date or have their sheet mailed to them for a small fee. This demo will take place outdoors, weather permitting.

Clay Dessert Creations

Pam Avery & Kathleen S. Farros 105

Children will create desserts in clay and add underglazes. Demonstrations by Pam & Kathleen will consist of clay sculpting techniques—pinch pots, coil, slab, and additive & deductive, as well as underglazing. Clay dessert demos will be of cupcakes, donuts, candies, ice cream cones, and macaroons. Inspirational visuals from the art of Wayne Thiebaud and David Gilhooly will be shared. Children will walk away with artist knowledge, clay & underglaze technique, and an art piece.

Threads of Unity: A Collaborative Community Macrame Project

Linsey Martin 144C/
Nichol Design Macramé

The large-scale community macrame piece is an awe-inspiring project that brings together community members in a creative and collaborative endeavor. In this unique project, individuals from all ages and walks of life come together to contribute their skills and creativity, weaving a tapestry of unity and shared expression. The project serves as a powerful symbol of community spirit, as people join forces to create something beautiful and meaningful.

Weekend 2

Botanical Blueprints

Linda Clark Johnson 212B

Learn to make a botanical blueprint! Using light-sensitive cyanotype paper and sunshine, participants will print an image of flowers or foliage on a postcard. They will take away a basic understanding of the cyanotype process and a hand-made original sample.

Watercolor on Rice Paper

Joy Kuo 233C

Beginner participants will learn how to apply watercolor to Chinese Rice Paper. The subject will be flowers.

Advanced participants will learn how to paint landscapes. This motif ranges from rocks to mountains.

Positive Purpose Cups - Pottery Wheel & Design Demo

Tammy Jo Schoppet 262D

Tammy Jo will be demonstrating pottery wheel throwing techniques and steps to designing a "positive purpose" cup/tumbler.

Visitors will observe the artist throwing on the pottery wheel, adding texture designs, and applying underglazes. The artist will discuss working in a home studio and her 365-day YouTube project series, where she learned to throw on the wheel by making a cup a day for a year.

Guests will have the opportunity to make their mark in clay for the open studio ceramic guestbook, and will receive a "positive purpose" take-home gift from the artist.

Beginner 101 Encaustic Demo

Linda Nunes 262A

Artist Linda Nunes will provide an information session and teach participants about encaustic, tools, and safety. Following the information session, Linda will demonstrate how to lay the encaustic down as well as demonstrate fusing. (This is the most important skill in this medium.) Visitors will learn how to both add color and incise into the wax. Finally, those who stay until the end of the demo will receive a small (1" x 1") finished encaustic piece.

How to hand-build a small clay sculpture

clayARTstudio814 205

Attendees will participate in this hands-on demo of constructing simple forms using ceramic hand-building techniques. Participants will be shown specific ceramic techniques to put together their own hollow or solid forms and be introduced to surface texture. Attendees will be able to exercise their tactile senses, learn basic clay techniques, and have the opportunity to make their own creations.

The Secrets of Glass Paper

Linda Hoschler 245B

Glass Paper is a fascinating Kiln Formed Glass Art method. See how glass paper is made and how you can use it in designing Glass Art. Participants will collaborate with artist Linda Hoschler to create a scene utilizing Glass Paper.

A TRIBUTE TO MIMI

Verge dedicates this year's tour to Mimi Miller, a devoted supporter of the arts, a Verge board member, and the funnest person you could ever take on an art adventure.

A descendant of the Glide Family noted for founding San Francisco's Glide Memorial Church, Mimi was a dedicated advocate and supporter of arts and culture in the Sacramento community. With her late husband Burnett, Mimi served on the board of the Center for Contemporary Art Sacramento (CCAS) for a number of years before the organization merged with Verge in 2014. Post merger Mimi continued to serve on the board until pandemic restraints made it difficult for her to participate in meetings. This didn't stop her from supporting Verge, however, and her love of both Verge and a good party brought her to one last dinner shortly before her passing.

Mimi was an avid entertainer and loved surrounding herself with the rich community her and Burnett built over the decades. Fiercely independent, funny, smart, and unstoppable she was adept at making new friends wherever she went. On the last Verge trip before the pandemic Mimi disappeared into LA's Central Market in search of a drink and returned with three people she befriended in a nearby taco line who ended up joining our group for dinner.

Her support and enthusiasm for art in all of its forms was unwavering and she was often the first to sign up for Verge's various art trips. In 2019 Verge led a trip to visit Desert X, a biennial art installation in the Coachella Valley. Many of the pieces were on uneven terrain with varying elevation changes. In every instance Mimi was the first out of the van as well as the first to make it to the top of whatever structure or installation we were touring.

CCAS established Sac Open Studios in 2006, a program that Verge inherited with the merger that has since evolved into the region's largest free art event. The tour is a testament to the love and support Mimi and Burnett had for Sacramento's visual artists as evidenced by the works in their extensive personal art collection featuring art by several of the artists included on this year's tour.

In Mimi's honor we ask that you join us in celebrating our region's creative community by visiting their studios, making them part of your community, and most importantly buying their art!

We will all miss you Mimi!

Lin Fei Fei | WEEKEND 1 / 101A

Lin Fei Fei's imaginative process spans a broad vocabulary that utilizes traditional techniques in painting and paper cut-out, graff-style street murals, and installations. Fei has contributed to mixed media collaborations alongside musicians, writers, fashion designers, and virtual reality artists. As with all her art, Fei is driven by unearthing difficult truths both cultural and personal.

She's drawn to concepts that are taboo in Chinese culture like sexuality and mortality and she sees it as her job to bring these facets of human experience out into the light.

In 2016, Fei was selected as one of ten "Contemporary Chinese Artists of the Future" by the Wang Shi Kuo Art Foundation in Beijing, China.

Tasha Throws Raw | WEEKEND 2 / 205G

Tasha Reneé is a potter in Sacramento who works primarily on the wheel. Her work features a variety of surface decorations including carving, inlay, and hand painting. Tasha is expanding into sculpture and is excited to continue experimenting in clay.

Melissa Uroff | WEEKEND 1 / 101B

Melissa Uroff is a California-based artist and photographer. She has a long love affair with mixing mediums in both 2D and 3D work. She creates installations, works in printmaking, painting, drawing, electronic art, neon tube bending, collage, and assemblage. Melissa has several public art pieces on display throughout California, and currently has artwork traveling throughout China in a group show with the GoGoGallery.

Frankie Hansbearry | WEEKEND 2 / 216

I am a native Sacramentan of Okinawan and European ancestry. My favorite subjects are people — figurative work. I like telling stories about the way we behave. I try to use humor when I present our dark traits and use animals, plants, found objects and mixed media to convey the stories. I sometimes become more thoughtful and reflective when presenting our noble characteristics. In the final analysis, it's all about human behavior, the good, the bad and the ugly. So, go figure!

Steve Briscoe | WEEKEND 1 / 159B

Steve Briscoe is a mixed media artist based in Woodland, California. With a throughline of ambiguous utility, mystery and humor, his work has taken many forms, with bodies of work in constructed sculpture, photography and works on paper. More questions than answers, his explorations of materials and processes are wide-ranging and open-ended, rewarding contemplation.

His work is in the collection of the Crocker Art Museum, San Jose Museum, Berkeley Art Museum, Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco and the diRosa Foundation, among others.

Maris Kaplan | WEEKEND 2 / 219B

Maris Kaplan is a multi-disciplinary artist and maker currently based out of Sacramento, CA. She loves playing with color, creative reuse, and collaborating with others. With a focus on sustainability, all works incorporate secondhand materials such as thrifted fabric, upcycled clothing, and found objects.

Her art is influenced by her global travels while teaching ESL, the colors and culture of her California upbringing, and her continued passion for lifelong learning.

Verge Heroes

This year marks the first full year of normal operations for Verge since 2019. Producing high caliber programs, events, workshops, and exhibitions would not be possible without the support of our community. Verge’s members, patrons, and attendees enable us to maintain Verge as a place for art, ideas, exploration, and inspiration.

We are privileged and honored to be part of such a dedicated, creative and supportive community. We extend a special thank you to the James and Susan McClatchy Fund of the Sacramento Region Community Foundation for their generous match on the 2023 Big Day of Giving.

In honor of you, our Verge Heroes, who have continuously offered your time, dedication, and financial support, we extend our sincerest gratitude and admiration. It is because of you that we are able to foster, support and celebrate the arts in Sacramento and beyond. In recognition of all you’ve done for us — cheers to you, Verge Heroes!
